Reading Workshop: Nonfiction is our next unit.

Students will explore nonfiction/informational text. Students will read a variety of nonfiction text. We will focus on literary nonfiction, biographies, and reference materials. Students will use their knowledge of the genre, text structures, and text features to support understanding. They will also use comprehension strategies before during, and after reading to monitor and deepen comprehension.

Writing/Grammar Workshop

Students have been working very hard on their personal narratives. We are in the revising and editing stage of the writing process. Students are adding voice and dialogue to their stories. Students will soon be ready to publish.
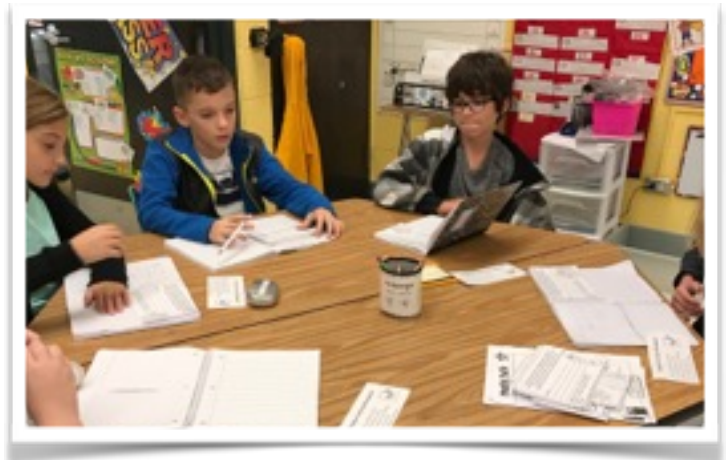

We will move to nonfiction writing soon.

Math Workshop

This week we will continue working on standard addition and subtraction. In addition we will work on understanding how to solve real world word problems.

Students are also working on metric units of measure.

Remember students can log into IXL and Zearn. Student login and passwords are taped into the front of their Student Planner.

Social Studies

Branches of Government: Executive, Legislative, and Judicial. Checks and Balances.

EXTRA! EXTRA!

Friday Folder: Much of our everyday work is completed in our notebooks. So there are few "worksheet" type papers. Unless there are notes that need to go home on Friday, Friday Folder will come home every other week.

Introducing "myOn"! Students will be able to read thousands of books on line. We will be learning to use it together. Students will be receiving their logins and passwords this week.
